

OBC CELL COMMITTEE

During the UGC IX plan period, the UGC has given top priority to the students & staff of lower strata who were denied education and employment for several centuries. In this regard, the UGC has issued guidelines to all the Universities and Colleges to establish OBC Cell committee for safeguarding interests of disadvantaged students and hereby promoting their welfare. To fulfil the aspiration of University/UGC, OBC Cell was established in our college. This cell has been functioning relentlessly right from its inception. It is aimed to circulate notification of scholarship & other facilities among the OBC students sent by Central Govt & State Govt from time to time.

The cell gives equal importance for implementation of reservation policies in college during the time of admission for different courses. The cell also helps the students in getting accommodation in hostels that are run by State Govt. The cell also organises various activities to create awareness among OBC students regarding the facilities provided under innumerable schemes of the Government.
